

Cut ties with genocide

National Day of Action for Palestine

Universities should be places of research, learning and teaching, tackling the biggest problems of our times; not corporatised institutions begging for money and partnerships from entities complicit with the brutal war crimes in Palestine. Join the NTEU in demanding:

Sydney University must cut ties with weapons companies like Thales, and its ties with the Israeli Universities complicit with apartheid in Palestine, such as the Hebrew University of Jerusalem.

The Australian government must place sanctions on Israel in recognition of the plausible acts of genocide they have committed, and commit to fund public universities for the public good.

Join union members demonstrating for a free Palestine, for USYD to cut ties with apartheid Israel, and to stand for a university for the public good, not begging for war contracts.
